APRIL 2019

President's Message

Greetings,

Spring is here and time to get out and look through those cemeteries for those secrets that are hidden there.

Cindy Ladage and husband from Illinois along with another family visited the Eads-Mansell-Sudduth House on February 18. She published a very nice article on her blog about the house. Cindy has a large following that subscribes to her blog, therefore we have gotten our name out all over the country. We thank her for her visit and the wonderful article. We have downloaded it and can make copies for anyone who would be interested in reading it.

We have made great progress on the restoration of the house even though we have not had cooperation from the weather. Last October our planning committee compiled a list of eighteen items we wanted to complete this year. So far we have completed twelve of the eighteen

We are still trying to get the correct construction date of the house. Marilyn, Kathy, Susan, Jackey, Shirley and I made a trip to Mississippi Department of Archives last week to finish looking through Col. Eads day books. We were still not able to lock in a definite year of construction. The information we require is out there somewhere, we just need to find it. If you have any suggestions please let us know.

Carthage-Leake Public Library

114 E. Franklin Street

Carthage, MS

Don't forget, clean your closets, the garage, etc. as we are participating in "Picking 35" again this year. Please price your items and bring them to the Eads-Mansell- Sudduth House by Friday, April 5th or by 7:00 A.M. on the 6th. We will be set up on the corner of Franklin Street and Hwy 35, same as last year. If you can help us please come by. We can always use your assistance.

We were saddened to hear of the passing of Wayne Parrish last week. He and Wynell have been long time members of DRGHS. Our sympathy goes out to the Parrish family.

As of now we do not have program speakers for June, September or October. If you are interested in presenting a program or getting someone else to do a program please let us know.

Looking forward to seeing you at our next meeting on April 10.

Robert
