we request that you provide your annual dues. We have many expenses to care for the needs of our organization.

On a personal note, I am so fortunate to share my life with you. At our recent board meeting I was having a conversation with one of our members...I always get excited to hear the stories and how things have changed, and about the people and events that have gone before us. The reason is that these memories of events and people are for me brand new. I am hearing many of the stories for the first time. This is a gift. It speaks of home to me. Thank you for sharing your lives. May your holidays be full of the beauty of the season and may peace find its way to your doors and fill your hearts with joy each day in 2022.

Susie
