

DANCING RABBIT GENEALOGICAL & HISTORICAL SOCIETY

JANUARY 2018

President's Message

Greetings

We hope that each of you had a wonderful Christmas and New Year's celebration with family and friends.

As we begin 2018 we have a brand new year and the opportunity to fill it with whatever we wish. Let's make it a year of amazing accomplishments! Each of us working together can do great things.

I was very pleased with the accomplishments that our group made in 2017. We made great strides in our restoration project. There is much more to do and work will resume as soon as the weather permits. Together we will get it completed. Thank each of you for your support last year and I look forward to working with you this year.

See you at our January 10th meeting.

Robert

Christmas Social

On Monday, December 4, DRGHS met at the Sudduth House to enjoy our annual Christmas gathering. Good stories and good food were shared by all as we held our first celebration in the location where we had worked so hard this past year.

Officers for the 2018 year were installed during the meeting.

ANNUAL SEMINAR COMING

Mississippi Genealogical Society will hold its annual seminar on Saturday, January 20 beginning at 8:30 AM. The all-day seminar will be at the Wahabi Shriners Building, 4123 I-55 S. Frontage Rd, Jackson, MS. Robert S "Bob" Davis, the keynote speaker, is a family and regional history expert and senior faculty member in the history department at Wallace State Community College in Hanceville, Alabama. An author of more than 1,000 publications on records and research, Mr. Davis has been a speaker at hundreds of meetings of genealogical and historical societies. Topics to be discussed at the seminar include Research Libraries in the Southeast, Revolutionary War Records of the Old South, County of Birth Resources in the South and Options When You Hit a Brick Wall.

Cost of the seminar is $40. Registration forms will be available at the DRGHS January meeting or they can be obtained online at www.msgensociety.org under the Seminars tab.
